To the Trustees of the I. K. S. Co.,

Columbus, Ohio.

Gentlemen:-

Miss Daisy Naughton is an applicant for the position in the faculty of the Industrial Institute and College made vacant by the death of the lamented Mrs. Peyton, and I write to forward her application to your kind and honorable consideration. Miss Naughton is a daughter of the late Chancellor, Leavelle Naughton, of Aberdeen, and is well educated, competent in every sense of the term, and among all the applicants none more worthy and deserving can be found than Miss Daisy Naughton. She has had several years experience in teaching, and has acquitted herself with great credit, and has always given satisfaction with her work.

Again commending her to your kind offices, I am, with great respect,

Your obedient Servant.
