My dear Annie:-

I intended to go to Holly Springs this afternoon, but do not feel well enough to undertake the trip. I am still suffering with a terrible cold, and am afraid it would make it worse. I will come up as soon as I can.

I send you a check for ten dollars. Write your name across the back of the check, take it to Mr. Fort, at the bank, and he will give you the money for it. Write it as it is written in the face of the check, "Mrs. E. L. McKie". My dear child I feel greatly disturbed about you all, but I have done the best I could, and hope there is still a way for you. Make this little go as far as possible, for I am hard pressed in money matters.

Write me a line when you get this, that I may know you have something.

The rest are about as well as usual. I hope you will keep well.

With love to all, I am your affectionate uncle,

Mrs. E. L. McKie,

J. N. Stone.

Holly Springs,

Miss.
