Brother Clarence E. Hoyd,

January 26,

92

F. M. Newton Lodge No. 92,

Newton, Miss.

Dear Sir and Brother:-

In accordance with your request of the 23rd. inst. I have issued, and inclose herewith, a dispensation authorizing your Lodge to hold its meetings in the School House in the town of Newton, until such time as the lodge can provide a Hall for its purposes.

I do not believe the dispensation necessary for it is, I think, within the province of the lodge to make provisions for its meetings in such case, but as no harm can result from it I send the dispensation.

Sympathizing with you deeply in your loss, and hoping that the Lodge may soon recover from it, I am

Fraternally yours,

W. H. Brown
Grand Master.

order as you may think proper to make.
