

1911

Glimpse of the Bayou, Handsboro, Mississippi

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarsjunction.msstate.edu/mss-lampton-images-ms-coast>

Recommended Citation

Glimpse of the Bayou, Handsboro, Mississippi, Lucius Marion Lampton, MD Historical Images Collection, Special Collections Department, Mississippi State University

This Postcard is brought to you for free and open access by the Mississippi Photographs and Postcards at Scholars Junction. It has been accepted for inclusion in Mississippi Coast Region by an authorized administrator of Scholars Junction. For more information, please contact scholcomm@msstate.libanswers.com.

E. J. YOUNGHANS,
GULFPORT, MISS.

GLIMPSE OF THE BAYOU, HANDSBORO, MISS.

April 4, 1911

Dear Son, your very welcome letter received yesterday was so glad to hear from you also got a letter from Uncle Frank and was glad Aunt Walter was doing better do hope she will soon be well & stay again, R

POST CARD

APR 4 1-PM MISS

CORRESPONDENCE ADDRESS ONLY

and Aunt Eugene went to New Orleans this a m. and will return tomorrow eve. Aunt E expects to go home one week from tomorrow. M is still improving is better than she was last week, we are having fine warm weather but nice cool nights. This is a great place to sleep, we have a fine cool breeze from the Gulf all the time, tell me all about the election have not heard who the candidate was - love to all

Duch

J. H. Cunningham
San Jose Ill

R R # 1.