LIZZIE.

Wm. J. Johnstone.

We don't say goo goo to the ba-by an-y more, We've The birds still twit-ter as they al-ways used to do, The changed our ways of late,..... And to church we go, on the ra-di-o, with no col-cat says mi u e,..... The wind still blows, and the cock still crows, in just the lec-tion plate, If you'd like to go with your sweetie to a show, You just approach the same old key, But times have changed'mong the Jimies and the Janes Now when they go to Miss, Then the chat-ter you can spill, And it will fill the bill, something such as this:

bat, They use a line of gab, Which your dad never had, this is most-ly that:

CHORUS.

I'll bring the L I dou-ble Z I E to the H O U S

E..... We'll G O don't say no, to the D A N C E.....

I'll have a F L A S K, Right on my H I P..... Keep your

E Y E, on the C O P if you don't want to get in I T.....
