From our neigh-bor, old Kin-tuck, we get the Colo-nel, The Hoos-ier Folks from old Mis-sour-i tell you you'll have to show, The Skeet-er comes from In-di-an-a towns, Up in state has made a bid for fame, When the Mich - i - gan you'll find the Mich - i - gan der, In Ten - nes - see the But - ter - nuts a - Prince of Princeton bat - tles with the foe, He'll find O - hi - o strict - ly in the bound. The Em - pire state had no - ted sons, Men laud - ed to the sky, Whose game. Wis - con - sin made a flut - ter, for a time was on the map, A deeds il - lum - i - nate the Hall of Fame, But the men now mak - ing hat from Oys - ter Bay was in the ring. But when the big line is his - to - ry, Who guide the ship of state, Are the pass - ing by, Just note the man in front, You'll see flow - er of O - hi - o, All hon - or to her name. he's from old O - hi - o, Of the Buck - eye we'll sing.

CHORUS

It's great to be back home with the Buck-eyes, It's grand to shake the hands of friends a - gain, Where the sun is glad to shine, On that dear old state of mine. Where folks are proud to march up with the van, Each state has no - ble sons who are the rage, In his - to - ry deeds they'll chron - i - cle with glee, But when Un - cle Sam wants a lead - er for the band, He'll slip off to O - hi - o, And he'll shake a Buck - eye tree. It's great to tree.
