I LOVE YOU IN THE SAME OLD WAY

Words by W. H. FORD.

Music by J. W. BRATTON.

Very slow.

1. Bright was the day, bells ring - ing gay, When to church I brought my Sue,
 * 2. Dark was the night, no stars in sight, When to church I brought my Sue,
 3. Un - der a tree, plant - ed by we, Where she lies there's room for me,

I felt so proud, 'fore all the crowd, Just to think that I'd won her;
 Left all a - lone, heart like a stone, Nev - er was such a true love;
 In shine or storm, o - ver her form, I lay bunch - es of po - - sies;

* The second verse may be omitted at the option of the singer.

Dressed up in her ging-ham gown,..... Just to come with me to town,.....
 "Dust to dust" the par-son said,..... While I bowed my old gray head,.....
 Flow-ers that she loved so well,..... Not the kind that town folks sell,.....

How the sun was shin-ing down, It seemed to bless our lit-tle wed-din' day.....
 How I wished 'twas me in- stead, But I'll be pa-tient 'till you call me home.....
 Just a lit-tle wild blue-bell, I bring and lay it where my heart lies too.....

CHORUS. With feeling.

Dar-ling Sue, dear, How I miss your laughing, Seems to me it sound-ed like the birds at play, Darling

Sue, dear, Don't be-lieve I'm chaf-fing, Bless your heart, I love you in the same old way.
