Jean

Jean - my Jean-with eyes of light
An' the beautiful, soft brown hair,
D'ye know that I'm longin' for you tonight-
For your lips,- for the clasp of your hand so white,
An' the thrill o' your voice so dear?

Jean-my Jean-of the glances bright,
Where the smile shines through the tear,
D'ye know that I'm callin' to you to-night
Where the seagulls cry like ghosts in flight,
An' the dark falls lone an' drear?

Jean-my Jean - where the snow drifts white
Through the answerless, icy air,-
Ah, would to God you were here to-night,
Braiding your beautiful tresses of light,
An' that I were lying there!
