

MODERATOR & PANELISTS

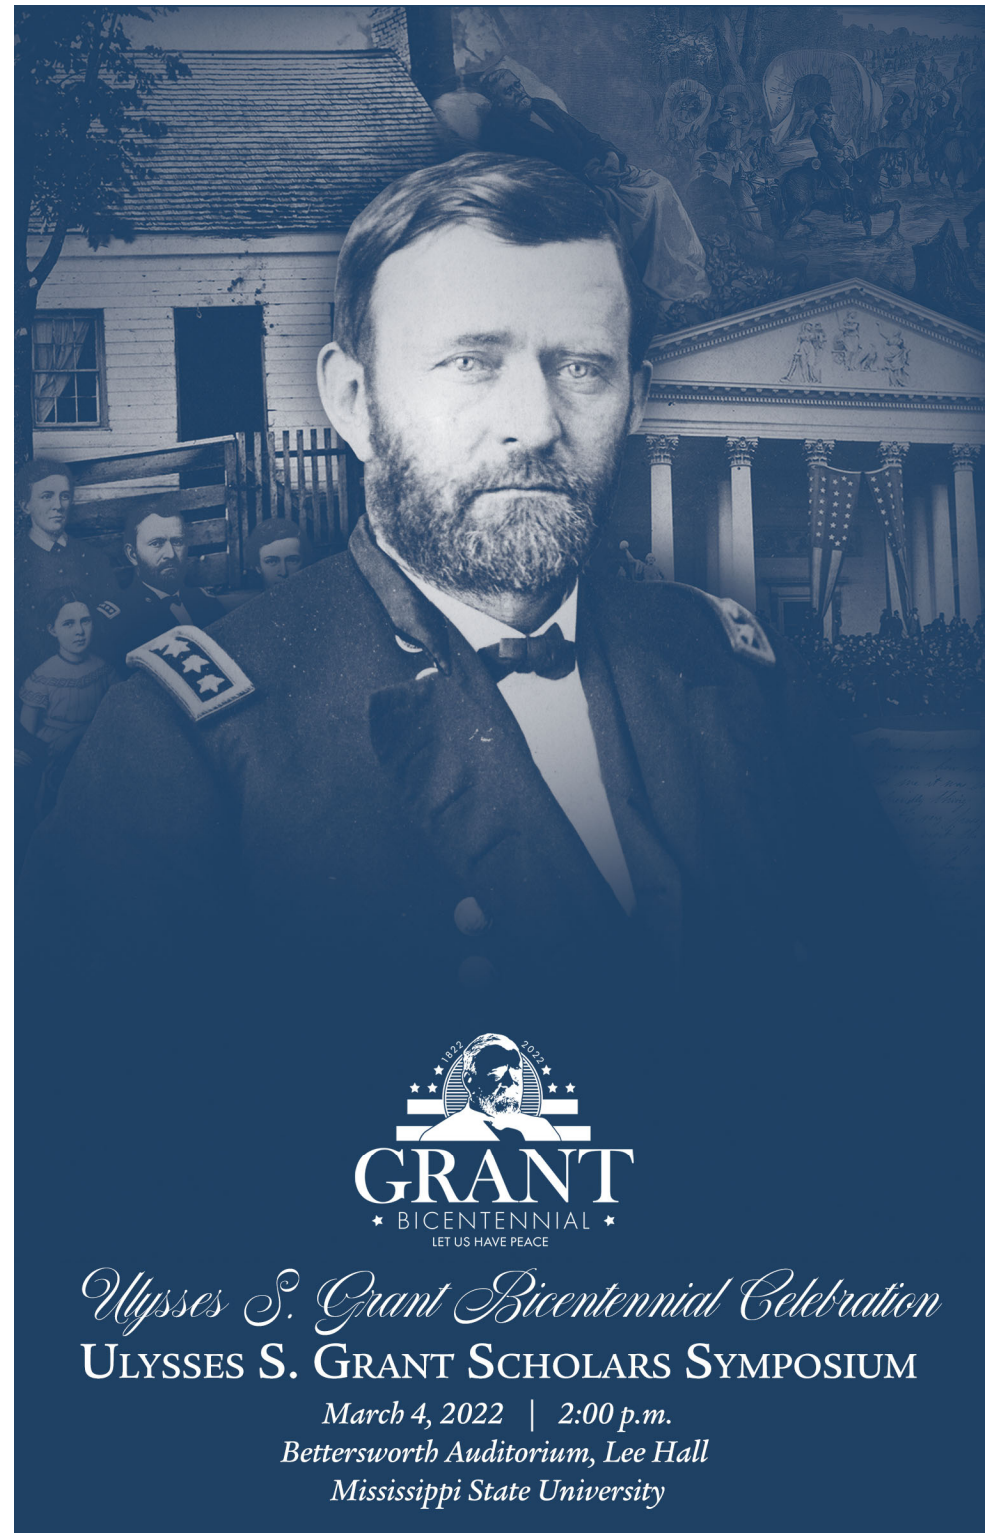

DR. EDNA GREENE MEDFORD

Dr. Edna Greene Medford is a Professor in the Department of History in the College of Arts and Sciences at Howard University. She is also a former chair of the Department of History. Specializing in nineteenth-century African-American history, she teaches courses in the Jacksonian Era, Civil War and Reconstruction, and African-American History to 1877. Dr. Medford has served as the Director for History of New York's African Burial Ground Project and edited the volume Historical Perspectives of the African Burial Ground: New York Blacks and the Diaspora (volume 3).

Dr. Joan Waugh

Dr. Joan Waugh is a professor emeritus of History at UCLA. She researches and writes about nineteenth-century America, specializing in the Civil War, Reconstruction, and Gilded Age eras. Dr. Waugh has published numerous essays and books on Civil War topics, both single-authored and edited, including her prize-winning U. S. Grant: American Hero, American Myth (University of North Carolina Press, 2009). Her most recent book (co-authored with Gary W. Gallagher), is entitled The American War: A History of the Civil War Era. She has frequently appeared on a variety of television programs.

Ulysses S. Grant Bicentennial Celebration
ULYSSES S. GRANT SCHOLARS SYMPOSIUM
March 4, 2022 | 2:00 p.m.
Bettersworth Auditorium, Lee Hall
Mississippi State University

ULYSSES S. GRANT BICENTENNIAL CELEBRATION
AND ULYSSES S. GRANT ASSOCIATION MEETING

Grant Scholars Symposium

March 4, 2022 | 2:00 p.m.
Bettersworth Auditorium, Lee Hall
Mississippi State University

Opening Remarks and Moderator

Frank J. Williams
Ulysses S. Grant Association President

Panel Discussion

Dr. John F. Marszalek
Executive Director and Managing Editor, Ulysses S. Grant Association

Dr. Caroline Janney
John L Nau, III, Professor in History of
American Civil War and the Director of the John L. Nau III
Center for Civil War History, University of Virginia

Dr. Edna Greene Medford
Professor in the Department of History
College of Arts and Sciences Howard University

Dr. Anne Marshall
Associate Professor of History, Mississippi State University

Dr. Joan Waugh, Professor Emeritus of History,
University of California, Los Angeles

Closing Remarks

James A. Bultema
U. S. Grant Association Vice President

MODERATOR & PANELISTS

FRANK J. WILLIAMS

Frank J. Williams is the retired Chief Justice of the Rhode Island Supreme Court. He and his wife Virginia are the donors of the invaluable Frank and Virginia Williams Collection of Lincolniana housed at Mississippi State. He will be retiring as president of the Ulysses S. Grant Association in 2022. He has also formerly served as president of the Lincoln Forum.

DR. CAROLINE JANNEY

Dr. Caroline Janney is the John L Nau, III, Professor in History of American Civil War and the Director of the John L. Nau III Center for Civil War History. She is the author of several books on the Civil War Era including Ends of War: The Unfinished Fight of Lee's Army after Appomattox and Burying the Dead but Not the Past: Ladies' Memorial Associations and the Lost Cause. She is the former president of the Society of Civil War Historians and has given lectures at a variety of universities, including the John and Jeanne Marszalek Lecture at Mississippi State University.

DR. ANNE MARSHALL

Dr. Anne Marshall is an Associate Professor of History at Mississippi State University and will become the Executive Director of the Ulysses S. Grant Association in 2022. She has written numerous articles and books including Creating a Confederate Kentucky: The Lost Cause and Civil War Memory in a Border State.

DR. JOHN F. MARSZALEK

Executive Director and Managing Editor,
Dr. John F. Marszalek is the author of many books and articles and frequently speaks to a variety of audiences. He is the Executive Director of USGA and is famous for his biography of William T. Sherman and, along with his colleagues David Nolen and Louie Gallo, produced The Personal Memoirs of Ulysses S. Grant: The Complete Annotated Edition published by Harvard University Press.

